

'Tis the Season

'Tis the season
'Tis the Bar
With Villagers traveling
From near and far.

With food and friends
Plenty and wide
We enjoy this night
And celebrate the Yule Tide.

The Christmas lights are on
And then bar is all a glow
It looks like the Holidays
Even though there's no snow

Suds is at the helm
With a smile and cheer.
In hopes that the Greenwood
Soon will be clear.

Time now to party
And spread the holiday cheer.
With Santa and Villagers
And a whole lot of beer.
