

It's Christmas time again

It's Christmas time again, that we all know
Time for all to gather 'round and make it a go
The Christmas lights are on, they are all a glow
But I don't have to tell you, as you already know

Paul agreed to the day when the Villager's could play
And have a little party so the people could say
That we are all happy when everyone can come
Why this year even Moe is helping to "get'r done"

Many things have happened this past village year
But the price has held steady, for drinks and for beer
The dinner theater has closed, now just empty space
Perhaps someone could buy it and make it a nice place

"W" held office, as some had expected
But this time was different, he really was elected
The Hawkeye's season done, they won by a nose
But unfortunately this time, they can't bring home a rose

We are here for each other though some won't admit
But Villagers are the only ones who really give a shit
We share each other's happiness and sometimes their pain
With no reward needed, only their friendship to gain

Please have a good time while you are here
Sharing your friendship and drinking some beer
The fact of the matter is, very simple but true
There wouldn't be Villagers, without me and without you

Merry Christmas
